The Keeper of the Road to France

IT'S the American Navy's biggest job. Enormous numbers of soldiers, unbelievable amounts of arms and munitions, millions of tons of food must go daily. Lives are staked against unseen mines and treacherous torpedoes. Some day our navy and its allies will come at grips with Germany's strong sea power. There must be no failure.

We must provide more ships, more men, more guns, to rid the sea of murderous jackal Germans, foul fighters that they are.

ACROSS THE WATERS

By Odette Gastinel, a 13 year-old French girl

It was a little river — almost a brook. It was called the Yser. One could talk from one side to the other without raising one's voice. The birds could fly over it with one sweep of their wings. And on its banks there were millions of men, the one turned toward the other, eye to eye. But the difference which separated them was greater than that between the stars in the sky. It was the difference which separates justice from injustice. The ocean is so great that the sea-gulls do not dare to cross it. During seven days and seven nights the great steamships of America, going at full speed, must drive through the deep waters before the lighthouses of France come into view. But from one side to another hearts are touching.

The Courier-Gazette

CIRCULATION AFFIDAVIT
Rockland, Maine, Oct. 11, 1918.
Personally appeared Noel S. Perry, who on oath declares: That he is postmaster in the office of the Courier-Gazette, and that the issue of the Courier-Gazette of Oct. 8, 1918, was printed and published in the city of Rockland, Maine, on the 8th day of October, 1918.
Before me,
J. W. BUCKER,
Notary Public.

"I pledge allegiance to my flag and to my country for which it stands, one nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

THE INFLUENZA SITUATION

Rockland has a little rising 400 cases of influenza, including a number which are classed as serious. Many patients are constantly being discharged and the new ones are not keeping pace. The Board of Health believes that the epidemic has reached high water mark in this city.

Tomorrow by proclamation of President Wilson is Liberty Day. It marks the anniversary of the discovery, 425 years ago, by the great navigator Columbus, of this country, destined from that moment to the task that it now is endowed with of bringing liberty to the whole world. This striking poem ought always to be printed in connection with the day:

(August 2—October 12, 1492)
Behind him lay the Gates of Hercules;
Before him not the ghost of shores,
Before him only shoreless seas.
The good mate said: "Now we must pray,
For lo! the very stars are gone."
Brave admiral, speak, what shall I say?
"Sail on! sail on! sail on!"
"My men grow mottled day by day!"
"My men grow mottled day by day!"
The stout mate thought of home; a spray
Of salt we dashed his weary cheek.
"What shall I say, brave admiral, say!
If we sight land but see it dawn?"
"Why, you shall sail on! sail on!"
"Sail on! sail on! sail on!"
They sailed and sailed, as winds might blow,
Until at last the blanching mate said:
"Why, now not even God would know
Should I and all my men fall dead."
These very winds forget their way,
For God from these dread seas is gone.
Now speak, brave admiral, speak and say—
"Sail on! sail on! sail on!"
They sailed. They sailed. They sailed the mate:
"This mad sea shows his teeth tonight.
He cuts his lips, he lies in wait,
With lifted teeth, as if to bite."
Brave admiral, say any word you will:
"What shall we do when hope is gone?"
The words leapt like a lightning bolt:
"Sail on! sail on! sail on!"
Then, pale and worn, he kept his deck,
And peered through darkness. Ah, that night
Of all dark nights! And then a speck—
A light! A light! A light! A light!
It grew, a starlit rag unfurled.
It grew to be the dawn of dawn.
He gained a world; he gave that world
His greatest lesson: "On! sail on!"
—Joachim Miller.

The General Welfare League asks this paper to give publicity to the following important announcement:

Does patriotism, like charity, begin at home? Provost Marshal General Crowder evidently thinks it does, since he is openly appealing to registrants in the new draft to ask for exemption or deferred classification whenever they are entitled to it, even though their patriotism inclines them to waive any such claims. It is evidently felt by the military authorities that the number of able-bodied men of draft age without dependents is ample for the military needs of the country, and that it is just as unpatriotic for a man whose family needs his support to neglect his home duties because of excessive patriotism as it is for the physically eligible registrant without dependents to evade the draft.

It is easy in times like the present to give way to despondency. Nothing could be worse. Not to believe and give further currency to wild rumors, to keep much as possible out of doors and practice a cheerful spirit, is of great help in combatting the conditions that the epidemic of influenza lays upon a community. One Rockland doctor eats five meals a day, a full stomach, he declares, being a great bulwark against contracting the disease.

Are you wearing your Fourth Liberty Loan button? If not, better get one.

PLEASE BE PATIENT, SUBSCRIBERS

The handsome annuities of subscribers in the call to adjust their accounts has thrown upon The Courier-Gazette counting-room the task—of course it is a pleasant one—of dealing with several hundred such accounts in a very limited space of time. If your receipt does not reach you immediately, or the change on the wrapper does not quickly appear, the delay may arise from that cause. If after a reasonable time (say two or three weeks) the date has not been changed to conform to your remittance, kindly let the office know and the matter will be adjusted.

DRAFTS GOING TO COLLEGE

Five Knox county draftees will be sent to Orono next Tuesday where they will be enrolled in the Student Officers' Training Corps of the University of Maine. The men selected are: Everett C. Robinson, Isle au Haut, gasoline engineer.
Lawrence S. Leach, Rockland, auto mechanic.
Charles E. Ramquist, Vinhaven, machinist.
Harlan R. Simmons, Union, blacksmith.
Harold B. Monroe, auto mechanic.

Wilbur Young, who was taken to Portland by U. S. Marshal Harmon, and arranged in District Court on the charge of willfully refusing to register for the selective draft, returned Wednesday, having been discharged from custody after making his explanation.
George E. Burleigh was sent to Camp Upton by the Local Board Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Burleigh has spent the past few years in Alaska, and was registered there. At the time of the call he was visiting his home in this city, and was sent by the Local Board instead.

UPPERMOST SUBJECT TODAY

What Is Spanish Influenza? How Is It Recognized? How Should It Be Treated?—Surgeon General Blue Answers All Queries.

Next to war the topic most discussed everywhere today is the epidemic, or, more properly speaking, pandemic, known as Spanish influenza. In answer to the multitude of questions which are now being asked about it there can be no more satisfactory reply than that furnished in Supplement No. 34 to the Public Health Reports, in which U. S. Surgeon General Rupert Blue has the following to say concerning the so-called "Spanish influenza," or "three-day fever":

What is Spanish influenza? Is it something new? Does it come from Spain?

The disease now occurring in this country and called "Spanish influenza" resembles a very contagious kind of "cold" accompanied by fever, pains in the head, eyes, back or other parts of the body, and a feeling of severe sickness. In most of the cases the symptoms disappear after three or four days; some of the patients, however, develop pneumonia, or inflammation of the ear, or meningitis, and many of these complicated cases die. Whether this so-called "Spanish" influenza is identical with the epidemics of influenza of earlier years is not yet known.

Epidemics of influenza have visited this country since 1671. It is interesting to know that this first epidemic was brought here from Mexico, Spain, and that time there have been numerous epidemics of the disease. In 1889 and 1890 an epidemic of influenza, starting somewhere in the Orient, spread first to Russia, and thence over practically the entire civilized world. Three years later there was another flare-up of the disease. Both times the epidemic spread widely over the United States.

Although the present epidemic is called "Spanish influenza," there is no reason to believe that it originated in Spain. Some writers who have studied the question believe that the epidemic came from the Orient and that attention to the fact that the Germans mention the disease as occurring along the eastern front in the summer and fall of 1917.

How Can "Spanish Influenza" Be Recognized?

There is as yet no certain way in which a single case of "Spanish influenza" can be recognized; on the other hand, recognition is easy where there is a group of cases. In contrast to the outbreaks of ordinary coughs and colds, which usually occur in the cold months, epidemics of influenza may occur at any season of the year, though the present epidemic raged most intensely in Europe in May, June, and July. Moreover, in the case of ordinary colds, the general symptoms (fever, pain, depression) are by no means as severe or as sudden in onset as they are in influenza. Finally, ordinary colds do not spread through the community so rapidly or so extensively as does influenza.

In most cases a person taken sick with influenza feels sick rather suddenly. He feels weak, has pain in his head, eyes, ears, head or back, and may be sore all over. Many patients feel dizzy, some vomit. Most of the patients complain of feeling chilly, and with this comes a fever in which the temperature rises to 100 to 101. In most cases the pulse remains relatively slow.

In appearance one is struck by the fact that the patient looks sick. His eyes and the inner side of his eyelids may be slightly "bloodshot," or "congested," as the doctors say. There may be running from the nose, or there may be some cough. These signs of a cold may not be marked; nevertheless the patient looks and feels very sick.

In addition to the appearance and the symptoms as already described, examination of the patient's blood may aid the physician in recognizing "Spanish influenza," for it has been found in this disease the number of white corpuscles shows little or no increase above the normal. It is possible that the laboratory investigations now being made through the National Research Council and the United States Hygienic Laboratory will furnish a more certain way in which individual cases of this disease can be recognized.

What Is the Course of the Disease?

Do People Die of it? Ordinarily, the fever lasts from three to four days and the patient recovers. But while the proportion of deaths in the present epidemic has generally been low, in some places the outbreak has been severe and deaths have been numerous. When death occurs it is usually the result of a complication.

What Causes the Disease and How Is It Spread?

Bacteriologists who have studied influenza epidemics in the past have found in many of the cases a very small rod-shaped germ called, after its discoverer, Pfeiffer's bacillus. In other cases apparently the same kind of disease has been found pneumococci, the germs of lobar pneumonia. Still others have been caused by streptococci, and by other germs with long names.

No matter what particular kind of germ causes the epidemic, it is now believed that influenza is always spread from person to person, the germs being carried with the air along with the very small droplets of mucus, expelled by coughing or sneezing, or the like by one who is already in the same stage of the disease. They may also be carried about in the air in the form of dust coming from dried mucus, from coughing and sneezing, or from careless people who spit on the floor and on the sidewalk.

As in most other catching diseases, a person who has only a mild attack of the disease himself may give a very severe attack to others.

What Should Be Done By Those Who Catch the Disease?

It is very important that every person who becomes sick with influenza should go home at once and go to bed. This will help keep away dangerous complications and will, at the same time, keep the patient from scattering the disease far and wide. It is highly desirable that no one be allowed to sleep in the same room with the patient. In fact, no one but the nurse should be allowed in the room. If there is cough and sputum or running of the eyes and nose, care should be taken that all such discharges are collected on bits of gauze or rag or paper napkins and turned, if the patient complains of fever and headache, he should be given water to drink, a cold compress to the forehead, and a light sponge. Only such medicine should be given as is prescribed by the doctor. It is foolish to ask the druggist to prescribe and may be dangerous to take the so-called "safe, sure, and harmless" remedies advertised by patent-medicine manufacturers. If the patient is so situated that he

TO MEN IN THE SERVICE

Christmas Parcels May Be Sent Abroad, Through Medium of Red Cross, But the Size Is Limited.

The families of men in service abroad have been longing for some means of making Christmas Overseas as merry as the conditions permit. Sensing this desire, the War Department has decided that each man may receive from his family a Christmas package of standard size and approximately standard contents.

Arrangement has been completed between the War Department, Postoffice Department and the American Red Cross, whereby the latter has undertaken to cooperate in the preparation for mailing of these Christmas parcels. To simplify the execution of this plan a large number of specially manufactured cardboard cartons have been purchased which will be distributed through the Chapters to the relatives and friends of men in service Overseas.

The amount of shipping space which has been set aside for the transportation of Christmas parcels will permit the sending of but one parcel to each man. To avoid any duplication, and to make sure that each parcel will be correctly addressed a Christmas parcel label is now being issued to the men abroad.

Men will be instructed to mail this label home to some relative or friend who, upon receiving it, will apply to the nearest Chapter, Branch or Auxiliary Headquarters, or such other place as may be designated by the Red Cross where upon presentation of the Christmas Parcel label, they will receive one carton, 3 inches by 4 inches by 9 inches in size.

The person receiving a carton may fill it with any combination of articles which will fit in it and which are not barred by the Postoffice Department. When completely packed and ready to be mailed the weight of the carton must not exceed three pounds.

A parcel ready for shipment will then be presented at places designated where Red Cross representatives will examine the contents in order to:—

(a) exclude any articles barred by the Postoffice Department from Christmas parcels,
(b) remove any notes or messages found among the contents,
(c) wrap, tie and weigh the parcel,
(d) place on the parcel the Christmas Parcel label received from the man for whom it is intended. The person sending the parcel shall then, in the presence of a Red Cross representative, affix stamps sufficient to carry the parcel to Hoboken, N. J. The postage charges for Christmas packages shall be at the rate of fourth class or parcel post zone rate.

(e) The Red Cross Inspection label certifying as to the complete inspection of the parcel by the Red Cross shall then be placed on the parcel.

Parcels ready for mailing shall remain in the custody of the Red Cross until delivered by its representatives to the Postoffice authorities.

A later notice will appear in these columns giving location and hours of Distributing and Receiving Stations for the cartons, and it should be borne in mind that the Christmas parcel labels must be presented when applying for the cartons. It should also be particularly noted that the filled cartons are to be presented at Receiving Stations in the same manner as the filled cartons.

The parcel post rate from Knox county points to Hoboken, N. J., is 15 cents for three pounds. It is expected that the cartons will be ready for delivery about Nov. 1 and they must be delivered, filled, to the Red Cross Receiving Stations not later than Nov. 15.

Other notices will appear. Further information may be obtained from E. S. Levensaler, chairman, Committee on Christmas Parcels. Telephone: Office, Rockland 667; House, Rockland 188-1.

TALES OF THE SEA

Although the famous Snow fleet is now reduced to five schooners it is a very rare occasion that all of them are found in New England waters at the same time. Such has been the case this fall, however, and four of the five have been in their home port at the same time. Those who witnessed this interesting sight at the South Railway were reminded of the good old days when there was a veritable sea of masts along the waterfront.

Schooner Lavinia M. Snow, Capt. Anderson, having been given a thorough overhauling, new sails bent, new rigging, new hatches and a new pump, has sailed for a Nova Scotian port to load potatoes for a Cuban port. Schooner William Bisbee, Capt. Outhouse, has been overhauled and fitted out for her voyage to a Nova Scotian port, where she will load plaster for New York. Schooner Methebesee, Capt. Brown, was in the bay recently with fertilizer from Weymouth, Mass., for a Penobscot port. Returning from the latter she will be overhauled at the South Railway. Schooner Hugh de Payens, Capt. Norton, has received new trestle-trees, and a thorough overhauling about decks. The standing rigging has been refitted and new sails have been bent. The vessel is now at a Nova Scotian port loading for a Cuban port. Schooner Wawenock has been given extensive repairs and fitted out, preparatory to a cruise.

The four-masted schooner Alice Colburn is at the South Railway to be reclassified. Other vessels there for repairs are the schooners Annie B. Mitchell, Nellie Grant and Herbert Black. The times like the present, to avoid such overcrowding, people should consider the health danger and make every effort to reduce the home overcrowding to a minimum. The value of fresh air through open windows can not be over emphasized.

At Cobb's yard the rudders and stern-posts are out for the two barges which are to be built for the government. About 40 carloads of materials are on the way to this yard.

LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE

Warren went over the top yesterday, and the larger towns of the county are now all accounted for. South Thomaston shares with Friendship the distinction of having doubled its quota.

Make Payments Now
The Liberty Loan Committee has found that a number of subscribers have not been to the banks and made their initial payment as required.

In order for Rockland to have credit for the subscriptions, and to go over the top it is absolutely necessary for every one who made application for a Liberty Bond, either on the government or weekly payment plan, to make a payment on the same, as in no other way will Rockland receive credit for the subscriptions. If you have not made your payment, will you do so at once. This is of the utmost importance and it is hoped that every subscriber will attend to it immediately.

"Cover up each cough and sneeze, If you don't you'll spread disease."

Y. M. C. A. BECOMES HOSPITAL

As briefly stated in a preceding issue the Rockland Y. M. C. A. has been transformed into a hospital for men of the Naval Station, who could not receive treatment in the overcrowded sick bay. Cot beds have been placed in the gymnasium and were occupied Wednesday by 21 patients. The attendants, 10 in number, are the second floor. Three of the attendants are hospital apprentices, and the others are orderlies, etc. Dr. Hannigan, surgeon at the Training Station, has the care of the patients, while General Secretary Berry, as utility man, makes himself a valuable assistant in scores of ways, and attends to correspondence for the patients. The Y. M. C. A. rooms are open only to men of the Navy and for hospital purposes.

SEVERE AT SWAN'S ISLAND

Eight Deaths From Epidemic and Many Cases of Sickness—State Sends Physician To Assist.

Alarming reports as to the seriousness of the epidemic at Swan's Island were confirmed yesterday forenoon by Ira C. Torrey, a resident of that town who was in this city on business.

Mr. Torrey reports that there have been eight deaths within a few days, and he was given to understand on good authority that there were 125 cases of influenza when he left town. There have been two deaths in each of two families. The population of the town is about 800.

Dr. I. B. Gage, working day and night, was manifestly unable to care for all of the cases, and in response to an appeal to the State Board of Health, another physician has been sent in by the State to assist him.

The recent arrival of fishing vessels from the banks may have helped spread the disease as there was much sickness on board.

Mr. Torrey is more inclined to think, as many others do, that "it's in the air."

The recent death of Clarence E. Rogers has caused a re-alignment in Combination Chemical No. 1. Emory Niles becomes driver in place of Mr. Rogers. Oscar M. Ellens becomes first pipe-man, and Charles Simmons is made second pipe-man. The company's first annual levee and ball, which was to have been held last night, is deferred until the epidemic has been stamped out. The tickets which had already been sold will be good then.

When Postmaster Donohue found his staff curtailed by sickness this week he sent an S. O. S. call to the Naval Training Station, with the result that Mr. Morrissey was detailed to his assistance. Having been formerly a clerk in the San Francisco Postoffice, Mr. Morrissey proved a valuable assistant.

The barn at rear of E. O. Ulmer's Beech street house has been taken down and a garage is being built from its material. This was formerly the Gen. Titcomb place. Older people will recall the general's famous dun-gray "Maj" that used to occupy the stable just demolished, and upon which the General made a fine figure in parades.

Bold band burglars broke into Virgie F. Studley's residence on Masonic street, early last night and stole a small sum of money. When Mr. and Mrs. Studley arrived at 9 p. m. they found that the bureau drawers had been ransacked, but as luck would have it the burglars overlooked some cash which would have better repaid their risk.

These beautiful afternoons bring the golf players to the Country Club in good numbers and the course presents a very busy appearance. Fall rains have made some of the holes a little slow, but in spite of that fact, some excellent scores are being made. Several more of the city's business men have this season taken on the game and still others are looking in that direction.

On the site of the old Safford store is rising the walls of the new block which Everett L. Spear is to build in the burned district at "The Brook." But one store will be built for the present, and Mr. Spear is hustling to get it closed in before snow flies. The name of the prospective tenant has not been divulged. The remainder of the big block will be built as speedily as possible.

Writing from Santa Barbara, Calif., Mrs. Kate M. Chapin says: "I prize The Courier-Gazette as highly as any prize, indeed more than ever, now that it contains the war letters from the boys at the front. I don't know of any spot in the country where the pure unadulterated American type persists as it does in the most interesting way. I am proud of the way Rockland always smokes, save the tin foil that comes about your packages of tobacco and cigarettes. The government needs all the tin it can possibly get, for it goes into the manufacture of munitions. Our artillery is raining shells on the retreating Germans, and will soon be chasing them across the Rhine. Let's help keep up the supply of ammunition—take your tin foil into the Red Cross rooms or leave it with your grocer."

Alderman Hawken's order introduced in the City Government Monday night calls for repairs on the sidewalk from Glen to Fales street; repairs to the sidewalk from Camden street to Glen street, and putting Glen street in suitable condition. He is of the opinion that $150 will amply cover the expense if his suggestions are followed and that the work will last for years. His order also asks that the gutters in Ward 4 be cleaned in preparation for winter.

Doctors and nurses recommend the wearing of gauze masks in caring for influenza patients. These masks are simply several layers of gauze sewed together and held in place over the nose and mouth by tapes. A supply of them has been made at the Red Cross headquarters and masks will be issued to any persons calling there for them.

Municipal Court Monday George L. Macdonald of South Thomaston was convicted of interfering with the lobster traps of Charles W. Harvey, and fined $20 and costs. The offense is alleged to have been committed July 25 near Green Island, the complainant's traps being cut off with a gaff. The trial followed on the heels of an assault case in which Harvey was fined for assaulting Macdonald.

Wednesday's mails brought many letters from the boys overseas. Among those who wrote was Sergeant Bart C. Kirkpatrick, who is with the supply company of the 56th Pioneer Infantry. He tells of a pleasant and uneventful trip across and of the good fortune he had in seeing his mother, even for only a few moments, when she had come North after a vain quest for him in deserted Spartanburg.

The steamer Mohawk of the Maine Coast Steamship line, which has been for more than four months in the hands of ship repairers, is about to go into service again, and it is said will start out this week on the Boston-Portland-Eastport route. New boilers have been installed, and the vessel has been almost entirely rebuilt at a cost of nearly $50,000. The Mohawk will be commanded by Capt. John Whitmore.

Charles W. Kallioh, who was recently transferred from the Merchant Marine service to the regular navy, was specially promoted to the rank of lieutenant (junior grade) and is now navigating officer on the U. S. S. Rappahannock. Writing from an Atlantic port, Lieut. Kallioh says: "Lying just ahead of me is the Nansamond, a very large craft belonging to the U. S. Shipping Board, Fred S. Packard of Rockland is second officer of her. We took in Broadway together the other night, and as members of the old 'Park street gang' did a very creditable job. At the time of the explosions at South Amboy and Perth Amboy I didn't know as we would ever see Broadway again. I can tell you that those explosions were somewhat more noticeable than the quarry blasts at the Highlands." Lieut. Kallioh's rapid advancement is no more gratifying to himself than it is to the many friends of that popular young officer. Men of his calibre are going to bring the war to a quicker conclusion.

THOSE AUTOLESS SUNDAYS
Fuel Administration Answers a Rockland Women's Inquiry, But Reply Also Needs Interpretation.
Just what did the U. S. Fuel Administration mean when it asked the people to refrain from using automobiles on Sundays? The question was asked by a Rockland business woman who owns a car which she has no opportunity to use on week-days, wrote to the Fuel Administration for a construction of the government's request, and received this reply:
"Referring to your letter of Sept. 18, beg to advise that request, no order is made that all automobile users lay up their cars on Sundays, with the exceptions named in request. It is up to the conscience and patriotism of each individual whether he is doing his part in the conservation of gasoline."
"United States Fuel Administration, Oil Division, Bureau of Oil Conservation."
The meat of the reply seems to lie in the last few words—"whether he is doing his part in the conservation of gasoline."
Is the man who uses a car only on Sunday doing his part, or is the man who uses his car six days a week and lays it up Sunday the one who is doing his part?
The argument is an old one, but age does not lessen its force.

MRS. WINTHROP P. HAY, JR.

Garrie M. Payson, wife of Winthrop Peter Hay, Jr., died at her home in Stoneham, Mass., Oct. 2 of pneumonia, which developed from an attack of Spanish influenza. The deceased was 29 years of age, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Payson of Rockland. She had made her home in Massachusetts the past 10 years, and was married to Mr. Hay in 1909. Her frequent home visits since that time had served to renew home ties which were of an affectionate and mutually beneficial nature, and which were looked forward to with great interest.

The deceased is survived by her husband and daughter Lois, her parents, one brother, Raymond Payson, and one sister, Miss Ethel Payson. The funeral was in Lindenwood cemetery, Stoneham, Mass. The large attendance and the many floral offerings told the high esteem in which Mrs. Hay was held in her adopted home.

WHAT VESSEL'S THIS?

Considerable curiosity is expressed as to the identity of a wooden craft which has been seen drifting on its beam ends on the Maine coast. The captain of a vessel reports sighting the derelict last Sunday four miles south by east from Matineux Rock. It was apparently about 125 feet in length and the officers of the vessel declared it to be a menace to navigation.

GERMANY'S PEACE OFFER

And Uncle Sam's Reply—No Armistice While Enemy Occupies Invaded Territory.

President Wilson's reply to the German Government's peace offer was delivered Tuesday afternoon to the Swiss Charge for transmission to Berlin, in a note from Secretary of State Lansing, embodying the President's words. The text of the communication follows:

"Sir, I have the honor to acknowledge on behalf of the President, your letter of Oct. 6, enclosing the communication from the German government to the President; and I am instructed by the President to request you to make the following communication to the Imperial German chancellor:

"The President feels bound to say with regard to the suggestion of an armistice that he would not feel at liberty to propose a cessation of arms to the German government, which the government of the United States is associated against the Central Powers so long as the armies of those powers are upon their soil. The good faith of any discussion would manifestly depend upon the consent of the Central Powers. Immediately upon withdrawal their forces everywhere from invaded territory."

"The President also feels that he is justified in asking whether the Imperial Chancellor is speaking merely for the constituted authorities of the empire who have so far conducted the war. He deems the answer to these questions vital from every point of view."

"Accept, sir, the renewed assurances of my high consideration."

"Robert Lansing."

In announcing his action Secretary Lansing made public the following translation of the communication from the German government to the President of the United States as transmitted by the Charge d'Affaires of Switzerland October 6.

"The German government requests the President of the United States of America to take steps for the restoration of peace, to notify all belligerents of this request and to invite them to delegate plenipotentiaries for the purpose of taking up negotiations. The German government accepts as a basis for the peace negotiations the program laid down by the President of the United States in his message to Congress of Jan. 8, 1918, and in his subsequent pronouncements, particularly in his address of Sept. 27, 1918. In order to avoid further bloodshed the German government requests to bring about the immediate conclusion of a general armistice on land, on water and in the air."

"Maximilian of Baden, Imperial Chancellor."

DISTRESS IS PITIFUL

In Poorer Homes of the City—Miss Corbett Makes An Irresistible Appeal.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:

Will you permit me to make an appeal in your paper for the benefit of the needy sufferers in this city. The distress in the poorer homes is pitiful. There is a lack of clothing and underclothing, and bedclothing is urgently needed. I know an appeal for clothing has just been made for the Belgium relief, but our people—little children—in Rockland need it as much as they.

In dozens of homes I have visited lately the influenza victims are suffering for the lack of necessary things, with no means to buy. When the good women of Rockland are making soups for their family, won't they please add a bit extra, or make a bit extra and notify me, and I will see that it is called for. Or, if it can be done, send the soup, broth, malted milk, disinfectants, clothing and especially bedding to the Registration room, City Building.

Sincerely trusting the people will send these necessary things and thanking you for your usual kindness and courtesy in publishing this letter, I am

Yours truly in the service of others,
Helen Corbett,
City Matron.

MAY RETAIN STOLEN HOUR

Indefinite continuation of the "daylight saving" time schedule is proposed in a bill introduced Monday by Senator Calder of New York with the endorsement of Chairman Baruch of the War Industries Board who believes daylight saving should continue as a coal conservation measure. Under the present law all timepieces will be turned back an hour Oct. 27.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH
White Street, near Limerock
Rev. A. E. SCOTT, Rector
81 Pleasant Street Telephone 22-M

Note: If this telephone is not answered, call 715-M.
Most Services Suspended. We do not want to assemble in any numbers for the present, so, with the exceptions noted below, all public services, classes, and rehearsals will be omitted until further notice is given in this column. This includes not only Rockland, but Thomaston, Long Corners, and Vinalhaven as well.
Twentieth Sunday after Trinity, Oct. 12th, Holy Communion, plain, without music or sermon, at 7:30 a. m., and again at 2:30 p. m. The congregations at these little services, as usual, are likely to be very small, and the Church will be well ventilated.
Holy Communion at other times. The Rector reminds devout men and women of the Parish that he is ready to go to them Sundays or week-days by appointment, either for the short Communion Service at their homes, or to bring to them the Reserved Sacrament from the altar. In this way they can in great measure make up for the lack of public services.
The Rector also desires to be notified in case of serious illness in the Parish.
Holy Baptism. There are several persons waiting for Baptism. These among the well people who have children to be baptized may at this time with advantage make arrangements to go to the Church by themselves and have their baptism take place.
Thomaston. Holy Communion on Sunday, Oct. 20th, at 7:45 a. m. This, like the Rockland services, is for a very small group.

Weigh these facts in the scales of unbiased judgment:

A pathfinder, to many, is always a riddle. For years, puzzled people, doubted the wisdom of striking out upon the unbroken path—but not so with us.

Our endeavors to explain brought ridicule upon us and bored some of our readers but three-quarters of the people are now expressing their keen interest in what we have to say, and the majority of them by their financial assistance testify their approval.

It seems almost a new miracle that this store should be here and that its inception had its beginning years before any other stores of its kind in this city were heard of. With all of us at work we are going steadily forward seeing the way clearly and able to grapple with the situation, and ready to give the best service to the people that is possible.

We believe the prices of Dried Fruits will steadily advance and some kinds will be hard to get. We have a few boxes of large Honey Sweet Prunes at 18 cents a pound, and Dried Peaches at 19 cents a pound, Dried Apricots at 25 cents a pound; and for winter use 1000 pounds Seeded Raisins, fresh seeded, full weight, 2 for 25c.

You haven't got to go to dry goods stores or notion stores to get Onions. Connecticut Valley Dry, the kind that keep all winter, 8 pounds for 25c.

The Princes of Germany are Shaking Dice for the United States

By HERBERT QUICK

WE MUST buy bonds to the last cent of our ability, because our country is fighting for its very life. Make no mistake, citizens of America, the crisis is just that—we are fighting for our very life.

We must fight this war through. We must fight it through to a peace the basis of which will be written by us and our allies.

Germany must not write a single clause in the Treaty. She must be whipped until she will sign a treaty every word of which will be drawn by the Allies. Germany must not be allowed to dot an i or cross a t.

Why?

Because Germany has become nothing but a robber empire, a murderer empire, an empire every purpose of which is the enslavement of the rest of the world. Such purposes admit of no compromise. We must conquer or die. If we do not conquer we shall, nevertheless, die—and die slaves.

Germany began with the intention of robbing France of her iron, her coal, her best land and her great factories; of making Belgium with her rich mines, great cities and immense factories a part of Germany; of gaining the Belgian coast, from which she might conquer England, and of combining under her flag the hordes of Mohammedan Turks, and all the Balkan States, so that she might train soldiers in countless millions, build navies to sweep the oceans, and conquer the world.

This war was to be a step toward world conquest.

If we do not fight the war through to complete victory she will still keep on and she will succeed. She will surely succeed!

Russia with her nearly 200,000,000 people lies prostrate at Germany's feet. Germany could now give up the Balkan States, give up Belgium, force Austria to yield up the Italian territories, give up conquered France, yes, she could give up these, and even Alsace-Lorraine, and if allowed a free hand in Russia, she would still have won a victory greater than any of which she ever dreamed at the beginning of the war.

Give her control of Russia and she can, and will, within a few years come back with power to take back Alsace-Lorraine, crush poor Belgium once more and destroy exhausted France, sweep every vestige of resistance from Europe, Asia and Africa, and then what?

Then she will thunder at our doors—from Asia she will invade us on the West, from Europe on the East, and from Mexico on the South.

If Germany has control over the terms of peace, we who read this will live to see one of the Kaiser's six sons Emperor of America.

The time to whip Germany is now!

It is now or never!

The Princes of Germany are shaking dice for the United States!

It will take money, money, money, that we may send men, men, men!

Buy Bonds, for so only can the war be won. Unless it is won, everything you possess is lost, and with it
the American soul is lost

WOMAN WORKS 15 HOURS A DAY

Marvelous Story of Woman's Change from Weakness to Strength by Taking Druggist's Advice.

Peru, Ind.—"I suffered from a displacement with backache and dragging down pains so badly that at times I could not get on my feet and it did not seem as though I could stand it. I tried different medicines without any benefit, and several doctors told me nothing but an operation would do me any good. My druggist told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it with the result that I am now well and strong. I get up in the morning at four o'clock, do my housework, then go to factory and work all day, come home and get supper and feel good. I don't know how many of my friends I have told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. ANNA METEBIANO, 36 West 10th St., Peru, Ind.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

NO MORE CATARRH

A Guaranteed Treatment That Has Stood the Test of Time.

Catarrhs cure come and catarrhs cure go, but Hyemol continues to heal catarrhs and abolish its disgusting symptoms wherever civilization exists.

Every year the already enormous sales of this really scientific treatment for catarrh grow greater, and the present year should show all records broken.

If you breathe Hyemol daily as directed it will end your catarrh, or it won't cost you a cent.

If you have a hard rubber Hyemol inhaler somewhere around the house, get it out and start it at once to forever rid yourself of catarrh.

W. H. Kittredge and the Pendleton Pharmacy, or any other good druggist, will sell you a bottle of Hyemol (Hyemol), start to breathe it and notice how quickly it clears out the air passages and makes the entire head feel fine.

Hyemol used regularly will end catarrh, coughs, colds, bronchitis or asthma. A complete outfit, including a hard rubber pocket inhaler and bottle of Hyemol, costs but little. No stomach dosing; just breathe it. It kills the germ, soothes and heals the inflamed membrane.

In Social Circles

Clarence H. Shaw is making rapid improvement at Knox Hospital. The Thursday Club held its picnic session at the Country Club yesterday afternoon, one of those perfect October days that nowhere is more beautiful than at this spot on the edge of town with its rare views of ocean and mountains. Mrs. S. T. Kimball and Mrs. Philip Howard were hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hix were here from Boston this week. Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harris P. Smith will be glad to know of their improved condition. Mr. Smith, who was first stricken with influenza ten days ago, was very sick and three days later Mrs. Smith became ill. As nurses were absolutely impossible to obtain, it became necessary to remove Mrs. Smith to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bowman, and Mr. Smith to the home of his brother, C. E. Smith, and proper care could be given them both. They are now convalescing rapidly.

Mrs. William D. Hall and daughter Margaret have returned to Castine, after a visit with Capt. and Mrs. Charles E. Hall. Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Pillsbury of Portland are in the city on a fortnight's visit. Mr. Pillsbury is having his annual vacation, and is varying it with bird hunting trips.

Mrs. L. E. Alvord has closed her home at 50 Main street (which is the "Laurie"), and has taken rooms at "The Laurels," the new apartments opened in connection with the Copper Kettle.

The meeting of the Maine Federation of Women's Clubs, scheduled for Oct. 22 at Augusta has been postponed because of the epidemic. Mrs. Myrtle L. T. White of Presque Isle, president of the Federation writes, "No date for the meeting of course can now be fixed, but we shall have to take our turn with other postponed meetings."

Arthur Peters is spending a fortnight's vacation in Boston, where he is the guest of Mrs. Cyrus Peters.

The directors of sewing at the Red Cross rooms again urge the need of workers on the rush order of hospital supplies and convalescent robes needed for immediate use. Of course persons suffering from colds are neither asked nor expected to work. The rooms are kept well aired and disinfectants are liberally used and it has been suggested that anyone particularly apprehensive of infection may guard against it by wearing a gauze mask.

W. E. Pollock has returned from Maine, where he was called by the sudden death of his brother, George, who was a victim of pneumonia.

Miss Mildred Foster who is having her vacation from E. C. Moran & Co.'s insurance office, is visiting her former home in White Rock, N. S.

Mrs. Berrie E. Rhodes, who now makes her home in Somerville, Mass., is the guest for a few weeks of her daughter, Mrs. Frank A. Macey. She received an especially cordial greeting in the local newspaper offices where she is accompanied on the visit by her grand-daughter, Charles Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton F. Morse have taken the Singh apartments at 359 Main street for the winter.

Concussion Francis Louraine, who was critically ill with pneumonia, is now able to be out, and has discarded his sickbed discourse—an elaborate full beard.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuller C. Blackington leave tomorrow for Somerville, Mass., where they will make their future home. Mr. Blackington has been in the employ of the Texas Company at both the past two years, and will now go on the payroll of a Boston ship-building concern.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Smith have closed their house on Rankin street and taken rooms with Mrs. Mary Webster, Grace street, for the winter.

Miss Emma Kuhn and Miss Mabel Washburn left Wednesday for a visit in South Orlington.

W. O. Steele is ill at his home on Rankin street.

Percy L. Roberts, resident manager of the molybdenum mine at Cooper, is spending the week-end with his family in this city. The mine which Mr. Roberts is to manage is not yet in operation, but rapid progress is being made in installing the equipment.

Mrs. F. L. Payson, Miss Ethel Payson and Raymond Payson attended the funeral services of Mrs. Payson's daughter, Mrs. Winthrop H. Hay, Jr., in Stockholm, Mass., last week.

P. S.—We need a new High School building badly.

MRS. CHARLES T. SMALLEY

Rose (Pierson), wife of Charles T. Smalley, died yesterday afternoon at her home on Broadway of double pneumonia. She contracted a severe cold in Hartford, Conn., while returning with her husband from an automobile trip to Newark, N. J., which had been made in honor of their sixth wedding anniversary. She had been confined to her bed since last Sunday.

The deceased was 25 years of age and a native of St. George. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Pierson died during her childhood, and she had no other near relatives. Mrs. Smalley was a member of the Methodist church in Somerville, Mass., and Golden Rod Chapter, O. E. S. of this city. In the latter organization she had been an indefatigable worker, finding rare pleasure in promoting the welfare of a branch of the fraternity in which her husband had risen to positions of prominence. Her marriage to Mr. Smalley, which took place Oct. 2, 1912, was followed by six years of unalloyed happiness. The comforts of an exceptionally attractive home have been varied by extensive travel, and the sudden death of Mrs. Smalley is a most sorrowful confirmation of a devoted couple's domestic career.

The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and will be private. It is requested that no flowers be sent.

NOT MR. MAYHEW'S BODY.

Surprising Discovery At Burpee's Undertaking Rooms While Funeral Was Being Arranged.

When the relatives of William Mayhew assembled at the Burpee undertaking rooms yesterday morning to arrange for the funeral the surprising discovery was made that the body in the coffin was not that of the supposed deceased. Notification of Mr. Mayhew's death had been received from the officials of the hospital, and the body was sent here at the request of the family, the members of which came from points as far distant as Boston to attend the funeral.

The mother of Mr. Mayhew, who has seen him frequently at the hospital since instantly that a mistake had been made.

R. H. Burpee, who was in charge of the case, telegraphed to Supt. Tyson for an explanation. It developed that there were two patients in one ward, neither of whom has spoken intelligibly for nine years. When the body was removed Mrs. Mayhew's name was given to it by mistake. The body was returned to Augusta.

Miss Farrow was born in Islesboro the same year that Maine became a State. She was the daughter of William and Charity (Coombs) Farrow, to whom were born 13 children—seven daughters and six sons. With the death of Sophronia Farrow there is but one survivor, Mrs. Helen M. Pendleton of Cedar street.

Aunt Sophronia lived at Islesboro until she was 15 years of age, when the family removed to Belfast. After eight years residence in that city she came to Rockland, and for 29 years made her home in the family of the late Hon. Francis Cobb. She was wont to recall, with evident pride and pleasure how she often rocked the son, William, who afterward became governor of Maine. When the family held a reunion at Crescent Beach some years ago she received a very pressing invitation to attend.

Miss Farrow had been a member of the Congregational church more than 50 years. Until a comparatively recent date she had been a woman of remarkable activity. It was a part of her daily routine to arise at 7 a. m., and she recalled as an almost calamitous event the morning she overslept an hour. She was very fond of reading, being especially fond of the magazine Outlook, whose editor Theodore Roosevelt she admired beyond any other statesman. Aunt Sophronia endeavored herself to young and old. She liked companionship, and was exceedingly entertaining. Her death will be widely mourned.

Ground for Confidence

We sometimes want to know how well a man has done when we are asked for an opinion as to how well he will do.

We almost instinctively judge the future by the past. The past is the foundation upon which the future is built.

Certainly, it is reasonable to believe that what Hoods' Sarsaparilla has accomplished for others it can and will accomplish for you, provided you are afflicted in like manner.

Hoods' Sarsaparilla has made thousands healthy and strong, by purifying and enriching the blood, restoring the system, liver and kidneys, restoring appetite, relieving tired feeling—in a word, by building up the whole system. Its record of cures of blood diseases, scrofula, salt rheum or eczema, psoriasis, pimples, boils and other eruptions, catarrh, dyspepsia and rheumatism is in thousands of letters voluntarily and gratefully written and forming a colossal volume of testimony. Surely anybody suffering from any of these diseases is fully justified in giving this medicine a trial.

SOPHRONIA DOLE FARROW THREE NARROWLY ESCAPED

When Trolley Car Ran Into Cleveland Sleeper's Automobile At Ingraham Hill.

The removal of Capt. Joseph Patterson to Ingraham Hill yesterday was attended by a near tragedy. The patient was being taken from his home below Ingraham Hill in the limousine of Cleveland Sleeper.

In attempting to cross the track of the defunct Crescent Beach trolley line the automobile got dented and Mr. Sleeper was unable to budge it from the track.

At this juncture a trolley car, which was being used to convey materials from the point where the road is being dismantled, came over the brow of Ingraham Hill and started on its rapid descent of the steep incline. Ralph Philbrook, the motorman, applied the brakes as soon as he saw the predicament of the automobile and its occupants.

The upper works of the automobile were nearly wrecked, but the engine was not damaged and the limousine came to Rockland under its own power.

MRS. RALPH H. BROWN

Elmer B. (Kirkpatrick) wife of Ralph H. Brown of Woonsocket, R. I., died Wednesday night at Sibley Hospital, whether she went for treatment two weeks ago last Monday. The deceased was a native of Thomaston, and attended the public schools of the town after graduating from Rockland Commercial College. Prior to her marriage, which took place Dec. 6, 1915, she was employed as clerk in Daniels' jewelry store. During her nearly three years of residence in Woonsocket Mrs. Brown made many friends by her sunny disposition and manifest thoughtfulness for others, making the same appeal among strangers that it had in her home town and in Rockland, where a portion of her life was spent. She was a source of joy in the home which has been bereaved by the loss of father and four children. The warmest sympathy of everybody is extended to the widowed mother, Mrs. Katherine E. Kirkpatrick, the surviving sister, Miss Flora Kirkpatrick of this city, and to the husband, The funeral services will be held this afternoon, Rev. W. L. Pratt of the Baptist church officiating.
